BISHOP GRANBERY ILL.

Town Council Declares Telephone Poles Must Be Removed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHLAND, Va., Nov. 14.—Henry Clay Council of Royal Arcanum met in special session here last Tuesday night, and after business session adjourned for an informal banquet at the Henry Clay Inn. The occasion was particularly enjoyable. Mr. E. J. Dowell furnished the eloquence and wit in a few well chosen after-dinner remarks.
The town council of Ashland met last night, to consider the removal of the telegraph poles from Railroad Street, the principal thoroughfare of the town. The Western Union Company will be required to remove all such poles within ten days from November 15th.
Hislop John C. Granbery is confined to his bed with erysipelas, as a result of an accident this week in stepping on a nail. This has interfered with his attendance at the conference at Charlottesville, and will prevent his filling an important appointment Sunday at Ashland.
Mr. Irving Scott, of the engineering staff of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has just returned from a special trip to McDonald, W. Va., where he was suddenly called to investigate some coal mining operations and opportunities of that section.
Mr. S. J. Woody, of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, was paralyzed while at work in connection with the new telephone line, on Wednesday, and was removed to his home in Richmond.

LEGISLATOR'S LOSS.

Fine Old Residence of Berkly D. Adams Burned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHASE CITY, Va., Nov. 14.—The residence of Mr. Berkly D. Adams, at Red Oak Grove, ten miles from here, with all of the furniture, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire started in a second story near midnight, and burned so rapidly that the occupants had barely time to escape. Clothing, jewelry and other valuables could not be saved. The house was one of the largest and most elegant in the county and formerly owned by the late Albert G. Jefferson. It was worth six and seven thousand dollars; insurance, $10,000.
Mr. Adams, the owner, is the delegate-elect to the next General Assembly of Virginia from the county of Charlotte.
Mr. Adams was here yesterday and arranged with insurance agent Hardy of this place to come up today and give him additional insurance. He and the writer started to spend the day with Mr. Adams and learned of the fire before reaching the place.
Many travelers and commercial men will remember that one of the late Mr. Adams' sons, without a home after the surrender of Lee, enjoyed the welcome and kindness of his old friend, A. U. Jefferson.
Mr. Adams is fortunate in having a store and another residence at his command conveniently situated.

PREDICTS A POOR TOBACCO CROP

Mr. Silas Shelburne Talks After Making an Extensive Trip Over the State.

Mr. Silas Shelburne, who has traveled over a large part of the tobacco belt, in all the counties around the city, asked yesterday regarding the tobacco crop, said:

"The section south of the James River and north of it, including the counties of Fluvanna, Albemarle and Orange, where the bulk of the dark English stripping leaf is made, has less than half a crop. The prices last year on this class of tobacco were so low that the people were forced to pay for their crop, talked with a number of good planters who kept an account of their labor, and these report that they did not make ten cents per day, and a great many of them did not make more than enough to pay for their fertilizer."

"The present crop was planted late, and, having too much rain, a large part of it lacks body, and being thin and light, will make a small yield to the acre, and will only make common snuff and common export fillers, which are now selling one-fourth under last year's prices. So it is very evident, unless there is a big advance in the leaf grades, the tobacco crop will be almost abandoned in this section."

"The crop in the sun-cured belt is also light weight, and will not make over three-fourths of last year's crop. A good part of it was planted late, and is thin and has cured dark. The sun-cured belt is bright and sweet, and will make a fine chew, and will no doubt be all wanted, but the present prices seem to be very unsatisfactory to the planters, who are holding meetings and agreeing among themselves to raise the price of their product and cut off their tobacco crops. There seems to be no disposition whatever to plant another crop, and unless there is a big change in prices between now and the time to begin planting in body, and will be much short in weight of what was expected."

"The sun-cured is a very expensive crop, as it requires a great deal of handling and takes so much room. Besides, it is so hard to keep from damaging that a great many planters will not make it."

Mr. Shelburne's opinion is that the tobacco crop over the State, and, in fact, over the entire tobacco belt, is wanting in body and will be much short in weight of what was expected.

The big Butler & Boshier branch plant of the Continental Tobacco Company, which has been closed on account of getting in new machinery, will start up to-morrow morning with a large force of hands.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

The Republicans Made a Clean Sweep in Grayson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GLADESBORO, Va., Nov. 14.—Ed. Travis, a negro man about twenty-two years old, accidentally shot and instantly killed himself yesterday a few rods out of the place. It may yet be found that some one else was responsible for the act.
Minnie, daughter of Mr. J. A. Smith, died here a few days since of typhoid fever.
Carroll county in the last election went Republican, from the representative down to overseer of the poor.

Although Xmas is some six weeks away, present hunters are looking around for suitable gifts for friends and loved ones. What more appropriate or acceptable gift than some nice piece of Furniture? If well selected, it lasts for years and is a daily reminder of some friend's love or esteem. To our patrons and the public we extend a cordial invitation to visit our stores and inspect a stock of Furniture and kindred Novelties it has taken our buyer weeks and months to think of and select. The array is so vast, it is impossible to mention articles in detail. A few pointers each week may not be amiss. Any one of these would surely help nourish a green spot in some friend's memory:
